2022 Annual Update

Learn about our recent advancements and how we are staying ahead of growing solution trends.

CSFi's Software Performance Review Service

Our new remote "Performance Review Service" is an in-depth evaluation of each customer's specific environment's handling and performance capability. Utilizing proprietary software monitoring and performance graphing tools, CSFi gathers...

Read More

Customers Live with SWITCHWARE 4 (PA-DSS 3.2 Version)

During 2022, CSFi teamed up one-on-one with customers to bring them current on the latest 4.01 version of the SWITCHWARE software. This new iteration offers...
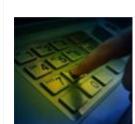

Read More

G4-Web Version 1.6 is Coming Soon

CSFi continues towards our goal of migrating all our legacy thick clients to our web based G4 solution. CSFi engineers remain committed to working tirelessly in achieving this objective. The much-anticipated version 1.6 release date is...

Read More

One-time PIN'ing Solution

CSFi recently added functionality in SWITCHWARE to facilitate the creation of a one-time PIN (OTP) value stored in SWITCHWARE by way of a batch file or a real-time API. This allows the card to be...

Read More

ARGO Integration Solution

CSF International and ARGO Data Resource Corporation have teamed up to provide a comprehensive end-to-end solution for teller-counter PIN validation and account lookup. With already two deployments scheduled, and...

Read More

Support for SHAZAM Real-Time Card Maintenance (RTCM)

The ability to synchronize and manage cardholder data across multiple systems is essential in banking and the fintech industry. In pursuit to enhance card management options, CSFi added support for...

Read More

PCI Software Security Framework (S3) Validation

As global payment systems evolve, the PCI SSC continues to expand their programs for securing the payment transaction and data. Payment software security has changed significantly since...

Read More

EZswitch® 2022 Released

CSFi made the latest version of CSFi's popular middleware solution available to customers in 2022. Offering new card maintenance support and enhancements for security within the solution framework. New features include...

Read More

www.csfi.com